This sixteen day trip takes us across the central India showcasing unique and dynamic faces. This heritage trip allows us to learn about majestic traces of former empires and offers the beautiful sceneries on the way.

Our trips begin on our arrival in capital of India. Following the trails of heritage tour, we arrive in Agra where magnificent Red fort and Taj Mahal, true epitome of love are the main attractions. Moving to the next destination-Gwalior where the fort and its premises are well maintained and house many historic monuments including palaces, temples and water tanks. Route between Gwalior and Khajuraho offers small but important city from historical point of view such as Orcha, Datia. The erotic and other carvings that swathe Khajuraho's three groups of World Heritage-listed temples are among the finest temple art in the world. Now, proceeding to Bhopal where we visit Sanchi stupa - Buddhist complex. Visiting the cities Enroute such as Indore, Ujjain, Dhar, Mandu, we finally reach Aurangabad. Alongside other historic relics, such as a group of ancient Buddhist caves, these Mughal relics make Aurangabad a good destination to explore. But the real reason for traipsing here is because the town is an excellent base for exploring the World Heritage Sites of Ellora and Ajanta. After having submerged in historical fast, we fly to Mumbai. The heart of the city contains some of the grandest colonial-era architecture on the planet but explore a little more and we'll uncover unique bazaars, hidden temples, hipster enclaves. Our trip concludes here.

Gwalior 📍

Agra - Gwalior

- After the breakfast, leave Agra for Gwalior by surface, on arrival check-in at Hotel.
- In the afternoon, leave for the half day visit of Gwalior the emblematic city of the proud Rajputs warriors. The fort, a majestic structure, set on a sandstone base dominates the city. It is its absolute symbol. Theater of many historical events of India, battles and jauhar (terrible customs of the additions obliging the women of the warriors to immolate themselves "voluntarily" on the funeral pyre of their husband). Inside the fort, we can admire some wonders of medieval architecture. The Gujari Mahal (15th century), monument erected by the Raja Mansingh Tomar in memory of its intrepid wife, Queen Mriganayani. The temple of Sas Bahu and finally the palace Jai Vilas, built in 1874 , by Maharadja Jayajirao Scindia. Now transformed into a museum. Designed by Sir Michael Filose, famous architect of his time, it is a remarkable example of European architecture: Tuscan ground floor, Italian first floor, Corinthian third floor. At the entrance to the vast Durbar Hall, beautifully furnished with magnificent chandeliers, gilded furniture and a huge carpet, do not miss the enormous golden leaves, the heaviest in the world. Finally the tomb of Tansen, the most famous musician of the court of the Mughal Emperor, Akbar. Overnight at the hotel.
